

The Making of Asian America with Award-Winning Author Erika Lee

In the past fifty years, Asian Americans have helped change the face of America and are now the fastest growing group in the United States. But as award-winning historian Erika Lee reminds us, Asian Americans also have deep roots in the country. The Making of Asian America tells the little-known history of Asian Americans and their role in American life, from the arrival of the first Asians in the Americas to the present-day. Published to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the passage of the United States' Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 that has remade our "nation of immigrants," this is a new and definitive history of Asian Americans.

April 1968: Through Chinatown Eyes by Filmmaker Penny Lee

April 1968: Through Chinatown Eyes

The civil disturbances and street violence after the assassination of Civil Rights Leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. had a profound impact on all of Washington DC. It had no less an impact on DC Chinatown, which found itself caught between the black and white struggle. Join us for Boston premier screening of the twenty-five minutes documentary.
